CIA Veteran To Teach Here

A PORTLAND native who taught with the first faculty of Portland Junior College in 1933 will return to the institution's successor, University of Maine in Portland, next September as an English instructor.

George S. Jackson, for 12 years an employee of the federal Central Intelligence Agency, is a graduate of Bowdoin College. He received his master's degree from Harvard University in 1932.

Jackson, who is a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve, is married to the former Sarah White of Atlanta, Ga.
